

Serve on the PBI 2009 Annual Dinner Benefit Committee

Why Should You Participate?

- Your participation on the 2009 Annual Dinner Benefit Committee publicly highlights your firm/legal department's commitment to pro bono service.
- Your firm/legal department will receive special recognition in the Annual Dinner printed program, event signage and video, and PBI, Corporate Pro Bono and Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) publications and websites.
- Your role is vitally important to pro bono. By supporting the work of the Pro Bono Institute and its Corporate Pro Bono project (a joint effort of PBI and ACC), you will help to promote, strengthen, and enhance pro bono service and ensure that it continues to grow and thrive.
- You will receive an additional invitation to the exclusive Co-Chairs Reception immediately prior to the Annual Dinner.
- You will be invited to participate in the Pro Bono Institute Annual Leadership Convocation on the afternoon of November 12th. The invitation-only, interactive Convocation brings together the top leadership of in-house legal departments and major law firms to set the future agenda for pro bono in our nation and around the world.
- The time required to serve on the Dinner Benefit Committee is minimal. You will be asked to identify potential Annual Dinner supporters. The Pro Bono Institute will support your efforts in a professional and low-key manner. If you prefer to contact potential supporters directly, PBI will do everything we can to make that effort as simple and efficient as possible.

Your Role As A Benefit Committee Member:

- Secure your firm/legal department participation at the Founder, Senior Partner or Lead Counsel level.
- Identify other potential law firm and/or legal department Annual Dinner supporters. Based on your preference, you would also either directly contact those supporters (PBI can assist with materials and/or mailings) or instruct PBI to make contact on your behalf

Sign and return this form to Kelly Ruest via fax (202-331-0111) or email (probonogala@courtesyassoc.com) no later than September 14th.
