

Western Regional Mini-Seminar Held December 6, 2006.

The Pro Bono Institute held a Regional Mini-Seminar at the Los Angeles offices of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher on December 6th. This informative and exciting two hour program on the topic, "Partnering with Corporate Clients," began at 10 in the morning, with individual consultations held at the conclusion of the program. The featured speakers were PBI President, Esther F. Lardent, and Jeffrey N. Hyman, Chief Counsel for Intel Corporation's Ultra Mobility Group. This program was free to Member Law Firms and cost $150 for non-members. The approximately twenty attendees included representatives from Gibson Dunn, Manatt, Fenwick, Reed Smith, Nixon Peabody, Stroock, Sidley, Preston Gates, and Jones Day.

The program began with presentations by the featured speakers, but included an open discussion session. The discussion was lively and informative, and the program was a great kick-off to the PBI series of regional mini-seminars.
