In-House Pro Bono Insurance

CPBO | CORPORATE PRO BONO

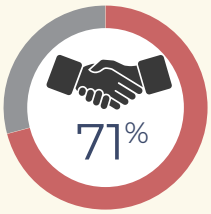

Legal departments and ACC chapters have several options to address the unlikely risk of a malpractice claim arising from providing pro bono legal services. The choices range in cost and benefits, from working with a legal services organization that provides coverage for volunteers to purchasing a stand-alone insurance policy. Insurance Options

To support robust programming, many departments rely on more than one option to secure professional liability coverage for pro bono legal services. 2024 CPBO Benchmarking Survey respondents report:

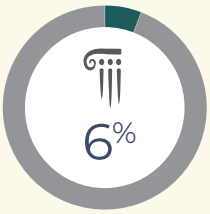

Self-insured

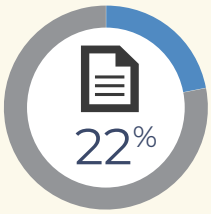

Work with legal services providers that provide coverage

Endorsement to an existing insurance policy

Purchase NLADA insurance policy

Purchase other insurance policy

Expert Insight

"I can count on one hand the number of pro bono claims I've seen. It's a de minimis risk."

Susan Friedman
Former SVP, Marsh USA Inc.

"If a corporation wants to get going with a pro bono program, it is very easy and possible to protect the company's assets and the individual attorney for a relatively small amount of money and little hassle."

Kevin Horsted
VP, NLADA Insurance Program
